First Presbyterian Church — Stamford, Conn.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

1101 Bedford Street
Stamford, Conn.

View from the rear of the Sanctuary, the light from the colored glass in the walls gives an impression of being within an immense jewel. At the ceiling, there is an ethereal blue light which varies in hue and intensity with changes in the sun and cloud shadows from outside. More than 23,000 pieces of glass are embedded in these walls and in the adjoining Narthex.
